

WITH THE USE OF BIO-ENERGETIC TECHNOLOGY CALLED ZYTO WE CAN ASSESS YOU VIRTUALLY ANYWHERE!

ZYTO Technology scanning (assessment) conducts a bio survey on the human body using a series of steps in a process known as biocommunication. In essence, our personalized programs practically ask questions about your body and record the responses in the form of signals it receives.

This assessment then provides you with accurate information making you aware of your body's needs within its different systems and organ functions. With this information, it is much easier to systematically influence and improve how your body operates, because you can take immediate action to make changes that you know will make a real difference.

This virtual or in-office scanning can identify exactly the best way to improve both your mental and physical health, including better nutrition, exercise supplements, and much more in its vast library of energetic or quantum signatures. It is safe and has no contradictions. It can be used on people of all ages. People with pacemakers, or having an organ transplanted, have an acute or chronic issue, everybody can take these assessments. It is a fast and straightforward process causing no pain whatsoever, all you have to do is: If the assessment happens to be virtually, Cindy may ask you to hold a bottle with water (water is a great conductor of information and source of connection). If you are at Cindy's office, she uses a hand cradle for the duration of the assessment.

Depending on the service or assessment you choose or have been advised by Cindy, this could last from 15min up to 60min. You most likely will not be aware of the scan happening, you'll be mostly conversing with Cindy during your consultation and duration of the assessment.

The EVOX Session is a little different, because an EVOX session consists of reprogramming the subconscious mind or a change in your perception, Cindy uses quantum hypnotherapy for this session, it could last from 1:30min up to 2hrs. You can talk with Cindy to see if maybe one of these sessions is good for you. "They are life Transforming."

So, what does this scanning Biotechnology do?

The assessment scanner provides a non-invasive way to learn about your body and its general condition, so you can take action and focus on what is really going on in your body, mind and mostly your meridians or your energy system.

Now, to do this scanning, we first consult what is happening to you and then, take from our personalized Bio-Surveys, specific programs containing hundreds of items to be assessed. The digital signatures identified as biomarkers will communicate with your cells and we will know more about what is going on. It's like, the program poses the question and your body answers.

Some of the things we scan include Body Organs Teeth and Bones Your Spine Muscle and Joints Nervous System Hormones Your Brain Chemicals Emotions Frequencies (low or high vibrations) What type of foods you can digest and what type of food you should avoid. Just for 90 days, then we reassess you since your body chemistry changes after 100 days & so does your nutrition preferences. The scan check what stimuli may affect body functions like: pathogens, electromagnetic fields, allergens, lifestyle habits, metals, toxicity, and other non-foods, and more...

After your assessment, you receive a Complete Report, so you know how to get from there. You will now know, if any systems are weak or deficient, you can start to take steps to naturally, holistically, or quantumly assist your body systems to heal, improving your health immensely.

Cindy, as your Wellness Coach, will assist you in telling you the exact type of supplements, herbals, homeopathic therapies, essential oils, affirmations, nutrition, exercises, maybe you want to try her quantum supplementation suggestion.
